FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE WITH AMPLER HOSPITALITY."

Since "open house" was kept at Mt. Vernon the Colonial bedroom has steadily advanced with modern comfort and hygiene. A little less tester drapery; a little more spring in the bed.

Our swell-front bureaux, mahogany highboys and round-about chairs have that restful simplicity wherefrom the Dean grew reminiscent: "In the days of my childhood it was like a sweet dream."

Now is the time when it behooves the householder to provide "ampler hospitality" and to save money, because even factory prices are reduced on every floor to make room for new spring goods.
